6. Underwriting Narrative

Client is consolidating from three incumbent insurers and requests common renewal date of 01 July 2026. Insured will not accept a higher escape-of-water deductible than GBP 25,000 for residential blocks.

The broker states that the account is currently marketed on a primary basis with optional excess layers where appropriate. Unless specified otherwise, expiring deductibles, retroactive dates and policy territories should be captured from the attachments rather than assumed from this summary.

7. Intake/Parsing Edge Cases Intentionally Included

1. Broker included an expired 2022 valuation schedule as Appendix B; current values are in the location schedule above.
2. One location has unresolved EWS1 wording in lender correspondence although remediation invoice is attached.
3. Submission asks for terrorism, but quote target excludes terrorism taxes.
